

CS Submersible Turbine Pump

The CS is a pre configured design offering a broad range of corrosion resistant materials and represents the state of the art in submersible pump design.

It is used in municipal and agricultural water well, for mine dewatering and as water booster.

Standard Product Features

- 23 hydraulic models in stock for quick ship
- Available in cast iron, bronze, all bronze or all stainless
- Distributor kit program

Optional Product Features

- Heavy duty cast bowls and impellers
- Heavy duty single piece cast suction case/motor bracket
- Viton rubber bearings
- Adjustable thrust plug

Key Benefits

- Always primed for immediate use
- Easily modified for services where falling water levels are common

Operating Data (60 Hz)

| | |
|-------------|--------------------------|
| Pump size | 5 to 10 inches |
| Capacity | 2,500 USGpm |
| Head | 1,500 ft |
| Pressure | 655 psi (size dependant) |
| Temperature | up to 275°F |

Performance Range

